

Inglewood Man To Head Board At El Camino

Seymour R. Rayor, general contractor of Inglewood, will serve as president of the El Camino College board of trustees for the coming year following his election this week in an organizational meeting of the board.

Foster A. Day, Redondo Beach, was elected vice president of the board; while Dr. Wallace H. Fraser of Hawthorne was named secretary.

Jack N. Dabbs of Torrance, and Hilar C. Ashley of El Segundo, complete the membership of the college board.

In other business, the executive group named Carl F. Arfwedson vice president of the college for the coming year. He will serve in the capacity of president during the absence of President Forrest G. Murdock. Arfwedson is director of business at El Camino. Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, served as vice president during the past year.

Bids for the men's athletic building and the warehouse and maintenance buildings were opened Tuesday and the public hearing on the 1957-58 budget will be held in August, Arfwedson announced.

Torrance Student Places Second in Chemistry Test

Jerry Buchholz, El Camino College chemical engineering major, placed second in competition which covered seven Western States, Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction at El Camino announced today.

Representing the local college, Buchholz completed a two and one half hour examination administered by the Chemical Rubber Co. in its achievement award program, competing with other students from California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, and Nevada.

The only student to score higher than Buchholz was the first place student, representing Seattle Pacific College. Nationally, over 500 colleges and universities participated in the program this year, according to William T. Mooney Jr., assistant director of instruction in the fields of science and mathematics.

Topics covered in the examination are those commonly found in the general college chemistry program during the freshman year, Mooney added.
